SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

In reviewing the past school year, it seems to us one replete with progress and improvement. Our experienced teachers have lost none of their vigor and earnestness, while certainly the younger teachers have worked with all their might for the advancement of their pupils.

The primary and grammar grades of the Twin Mountain school have been taught the entire year by Misses Rosebrook and Seymour, respectively, both young ladies of this town. They have accomplished much good work which speaks for itself. Their methods were thorough and modern and a day spent in their rooms was sure to be one of pleasure. The rhetorical work of these schools was of a high order and much attention was given to patriotic instruction. Miss Rosebrook has had charge of the primary grade for the past six years.

Zealand labors under its usual disadvantage of no school building. Miss Lillian Brill did excellent work there the first term and Miss Hattie E. Miles the second term, both young ladies of this town who have taught successfully before. The addition of new blackboards, charts, etc., made the teachers' work less difficult. This was Miss Miles' fifth term in the school. The attendance here is always very good. There are three pupils having no marks against their names for nearly four years.

Fabyan school had three teachers during the year : Miss Pinkham, of Whitefield ; Miss Hilliard, of Lancaster ; and Miss Sunbury, of Littleton ; all different in their methods, but competent and painstaking. This is a charming little school and the pupils did some fine work. The room was pleasant and attractive with pictures, and books and magazines were abundant for spare moments.

Pine Grove school was taught the first two terms of the year by Miss Nora Brisson, of Lancaster, a young lady who bids fair to make a teacher of unusual ability. Order and discipline were good and improvement in pupils very marked. Miss Brisson's mental arithmetic exercises for young pupils were the best we ever heard. Miss Viola Stillings, of Jefferson, taught the last term very satisfactorily to both parents and pupils.

The Applebee school was taught the entire year by Miss Effie P. Smith, of Jefferson, who, though young, is an old favorite in this district. We notice an improvement in average attendance. The school room is pleasant and convenient, but the desks are only fit for very small pupils, and we would certainly suggest a change in them.

Cherry Mountain school was taught the first term by Miss Bertha Quimby, of Bethlehem ; the remainder of the year by Miss Florence C. Allen, of this town. Miss Allen bent her entire energies to school work and the progress of her pupils "corresponded." The school room was always neat and inviting. There is a unanimous call for Miss Allen's return another year.

The Town House school was taught the entire year by Miss Georgie A. Black, of Lancaster, who proved an efficient and successful teacher in every particular. Rapid progress was made by all the pupils but especially by the smaller ones. Her school room was a model of order and neatness.

The special term of school was sadly interfered with by the illness of the teacher, Prof. D. T. Timberlake, of Lancaster. The term was finished, however, most acceptably by Miss Ruby E. McIntire, who gave such entire satisfaction as to be engaged for the term now in session.

Those on the Roll of Honor for two terms are : Sidney Brown, John Nelson, Leon Hunt, Avice Hunt, Effie Howe, Cora Hall, Vincent Gage, and Charles Baldie. Those for the entire year are : Ethel Seymour, Marguerite Seymour, Joseph King, John Kelly, James Kelly, Maggie McCrea, Georgie McCrea, Maud McCrea, Della Wescom, and Ethel Hudson.

No one school has a monopoly of all the good things. While one day you may enjoy the fine blackboard work of one school, the next may see you as deeply interested in the excellent language lessons and history topics of another. The written work of our schools is certainly admirable, and the penmanship of many a pupil of twelve years would do credit to a man of business.

We hope in the next year to hear more singing in our schools. In the words of Prof. Johnston, one of the best trainers of teachers we ever knew, we would say, "Sing once at least every day ; wake up the sleepy pupils by music ; cheer the sorrowful by music ; mollify the rough and uncontrollable by music ; refresh yourself when weary of teaching by music ; drop everything, and all sing."

Don't expect operatic trills and warbles but just something simple and tuneful to cheer the pupils in the busy work before them.

Respectfully submitted,

FLORA J. MILES.

ZEEB HOWE, Treasurer.

The Trustees wish to state that new books are to be received in April and to mention the great need of more book room, the present cases being far too small. They also wish to call the attention of the townspeople to the generous gift of Mr. Fred Whittemore of Nashua, for his contribution of over one hundred volumes which are greatly appreciated by the patrons of the library. They also feel encouraged at the kind of reading most desired by our young people, which are books of history, travel and science, thereby showing healthy minds seeking knowledge. The books of reference in the Library are always at the disposal of the pupils of our public schools.
